As a stool father, spiritual observer, and mentor, I have witnessed things most people cannot explain. I have spoken with the wise, observed the misled, and guided those who were spiritually trapped. Chapter 1: What You Must Know Before You Go to a Spiritual Leader

Before you think of going to a spiritual leader, you must first ask yourself a very important question:

“The problem I’m facing right now — is it truly a spiritual problem? And why do I believe it is spiritual?”

If, after reflection, you realize that it is indeed a spiritual issue, then you need to prepare properly before going to seek help. Here’s how:

1. Write Down Your Questions

Take a pen and a sheet of paper. Write down all the questions you want to ask the spiritual person. Don’t keep anything in your mind — prepare to ask everything clearly and directly.

2. Understand the Limitations of Spiritual Leaders

One important thing to understand is this:

A spiritual leader will not — and cannot — tell you everything about yourself.

He may not reveal everything he sees in your spiritual life, and that’s not because he wants to hide things from you or because what he sees is bad.

Sometimes, certain truths must be kept hidden for the right time — so that you can grow and mature enough to understand and handle them.

3. Why Some Truths Are Delayed

Let me give you an example.

Let’s say that 10 years from now, you are destined to become the president of a country. That is a great future, but it requires wisdom, preparation, and personal growth.

Now imagine this:

If the spiritual leader tells you today that you are going to be a president, and you're not mature enough to understand what that role truly means, you may become arrogant or lazy. You might stop learning and preparing because you believe your destiny is already guaranteed.

In such a case, your own mindset could destroy the future that was meant for you.

This is why spiritual leaders sometimes only say:

“There are great things ahead of you. Prepare yourself.”

They don't lie to you — they protect your growth. Their silence is part of the wisdom. They reveal only what you're ready to receive, so you don't misuse the information or miss your destiny.

Chapter 2: What is Spirituality & Its Types

African Proverb: “Wisdom is like a baobab tree; no one individual can embrace it.”

What is Spirituality?

Spirituality is the deep awareness that life is more than flesh, work, and possessions. It is the inner search for meaning, connection, and purpose. Spirituality does not depend only on religion, though religion can guide it. It is the heartbeat that makes a person ask: “Who am I? Why am I here? What connects me to others and to God?”

Bible: “God is Spirit, and those who worship Him must worship in spirit and truth.” (John 4:24)

Qur’an: “Indeed, in the remembrance of Allah do hearts find rest.” (Qur’an 13:28)

Bhagavad Gita: “The selfcontrolled soul, who moves among objects with senses under restraint, is free from attachment and attains peace.” (Bhagavad Gita 2:64)

African Wisdom: Spirituality is like the breath of the ancestors flowing through the living.

Types of Spirituality

1. Religious Spirituality

Following the teachings, rituals, and guidance of a particular faith.

Bible: “Religion that God our Father accepts as pure and faultless is this: to look after orphans and widows.” (James 1:27)

Qur’an: “Establish prayer and give zakah, and bow with those who bow [in worship].” (Qur’an 2:43)

Gita: “Whatever path men travel is My path; no matter where they walk it leads to Me.” (Bhagavad Gita 4:11)

2. Mystical Spirituality

Seeking direct union with the Divine through meditation, visions, or silence.

Bible: “I know a man in Christ who was caught up to the third heaven.” (2 Corinthians 12:2)

Qur’an: “And He is with you wherever you are.” (Qur’an 57:4)

Gita: “When meditation is mastered, the mind is unwavering like the flame of a lamp in a windless place.” (Bhagavad Gita 6:19)

3. Philosophical Spirituality

Searching for truth through wisdom, reflection, and reasoning.

Bible: “Give your servant a discerning heart to govern your people and to distinguish between right and wrong.” (1 Kings 3:9)

Qur’an: “Will they not reflect upon themselves? Allah created the heavens and the earth and everything between them in Truth.” (Qur’an 30:8)

Gita: “There is nothing so purifying in the world as wisdom.” (Bhagavad Gita 4:38)

4. ServiceBased Spirituality

Experiencing God through serving others, feeding the poor, or caring for the sick.

Bible: “Whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me.” (Matthew 25:40)

Qur’an: “The righteous are those who give food, out of love for Him, to the poor and the orphan and the captive.” (Qur’an 76:8)

Gita: “He who sees inaction in action, and action in inaction, is truly wise.” (Bhagavad Gita 4:18)

5. Artistic/Creative Spirituality

Turning creativity into prayer — through music, dance, poetry, or painting.

Bible: “Praise Him with the tambourine and dance; praise Him with strings and pipe.” (Psalm 150:4)

Qur’an: “And We have certainly made the Qur’an easy for remembrance, so is there any who will remember?” (Qur’an 54:17)

African Wisdom: The drum is not only music but the heartbeat of the people, calling the spirit into community.

6. Contemplative Spirituality

Focusing on silence, prayer, and deep meditation.

Bible: “Jesus often withdrew to lonely places and prayed.” (Luke 5:16)

Qur’an: “Remember your Lord within yourself, humbly and fearfully, without loudness in words, in the mornings and evenings.” (Qur’an 7:205)

Gita: “When the yogi meditates with an unwavering mind, purified, disciplined, and absorbed in the Self, he is freed from all sorrow.” (Bhagavad Gita 6:20–23)

7. Nature Spirituality

Becoming aware of God in creation — in rivers, trees, stars, and mountains.

Bible: “The heavens declare the glory of God; the skies proclaim the work of his hands.” (Psalm 19:1)

Qur’an: “Indeed, in the creation of the heavens and the earth and the alternation of the night and the day are signs for those of understanding.” (Qur’an 3:190)

Gita: “Of trees I am the banyan tree, and of immovable things I am the Himalayas.” (Bhagavad Gita 10:26)

African Proverb: “When the roots of a tree begin to decay, it spreads death to the branches.”

8. Interfaith or Universal Spirituality

Recognizing that God is bigger than human boundaries.

Bible: “For in Him we live and move and have our being.” (Acts 17:28)

Qur’an: “To each of you We prescribed a law and a method. Had Allah willed, He would have made you one community, but [He intended] to test you in what He has given you.” (Qur’an 5:48)

Gita: “Whenever dharma declines and the purpose of life is forgotten, I manifest Myself.” (Bhagavad Gita 4:7)

9. African Spirituality

Rooted in ancestral wisdom, respect for elders, and harmony with the unseen.

Practice: Libation honors ancestors; drumming calls the spirit; naming ceremonies declare destiny; the ancestral stool carries memory and authority.

Bible: “Honor your father and your mother, so that you may live long in the land the Lord your God is giving you.” (Exodus 20:12)

Proverb: “A tree without roots dries quickly.”

Parables of Wisdom

African Parable: “A child who is not embraced by the village will burn it down to feel its warmth.” → Spirituality is communal; when one is forgotten, the chain breaks.

Biblical Parable: “The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed... though it is the smallest of all seeds, yet when it grows, it is the largest of garden plants.” (Matthew 13:31–32)

Gita Lesson: “As the blazing fire reduces wood to ashes, so does the fire of knowledge burn to ashes all karma.” (Bhagavad Gita 4:37)

Reflection Questions

1. Where do I most feel God's presence: in prayer, in nature, in service, or in silence?
2. Which type of spirituality calls me to grow deeper today?
3. How do I honor both my faith and my ancestors in my journey?

Exercise: Discover Your Spiritual Path

(Questions remain the same, but now answers can include options inspired by the Qur'an and Gita as well.)

Closing Seal

African Proverb: "A single bracelet does not jingle."

Bible: "Be still, and know that I am God." (Psalm 46:10)

Qur'an: "So remember Me; I will remember you." (Qur'an 2:152)

Bhagavad Gita: "Fix your mind on Me, be devoted to Me, sacrifice to Me, bow down to Me; you shall come to Me alone." (Bhagavad Gita 9:34)

Chapter 3: The Secret of World Leaders

Throughout history, the world has been shaped by a small circle of leaders. While most people see politics, economics, and religion on the surface, the true foundation of their power rests in hidden knowledge that the masses are not taught. This is the secret world leaders do not want humanity to know:

1. Energy Is the Real Currency

Money is not the true power. It is only a symbol. The real currency is human energy — your thoughts, your emotions, your desires, and your fears.

Leaders understand how to harvest this energy by keeping people in cycles of fear, hope, and dependency.

When people argue, suffer, or dream without control, they unconsciously release energy that is absorbed by the systems of power.

2. The Hidden Use of Sex

Sexual energy is the strongest life force in human beings. Leaders know this, and that is why they use sex as a tool of manipulation.

Sexual desire is used in advertising, media, and entertainment to keep people distracted.

In occult power circles, sex rituals are practiced to bind spirits, influence minds, and attract wealth or dominance.

When people misuse their sexual energy through addiction, lust, or uncontrolled desire, they unknowingly give away their life force to others who know how to channel it.

3. The Web of Symbols

The world is ruled through symbols — hidden codes placed in logos, flags, architecture, and even technology. These symbols are not random; they are ancient keys that tap into the subconscious mind.

Leaders use symbols to anchor power and influence the collective.

Those who do not understand these signs live in the illusion, while those who do hold invisible control.

4. The Timeline of Control

What world leaders fear the most is that people will wake up to the truth that reality is not fixed. It is shaped by thought, intention, and action.

When humanity becomes conscious of their collective power, leaders will lose their grip.

This is why distraction, division, and false promises are constantly placed before the masses.

5. The Hidden Key for You

The same secrets leaders use can also empower you:

Guard your sexual energy, for it is the root of your life force.

Learn to read symbols, because they reveal hidden truths.

Protect your thoughts and emotions, for they are the currency of your reality.

Align yourself with the higher mind, and you will step out of manipulation into mastery.

Final Word

World leaders are not powerful because they are gods — they are powerful because they understand the laws of energy, symbols, and human desire. Once you awaken to this knowledge, no one can control you. Instead, you become the master of your own destiny.

Chapter 4: The Mystery of Awakening

Awakening: The Journey from Sleep to Spirit

Most people live as if they are asleep. They follow the voices of family, culture, money, and ego, never questioning if this is truly life. Awakening is when you begin to see through the illusion. It is like the rising of the sun in a dark land—the moment when truth begins to shine inside of you.

Awakening is not just an idea; it is an experience. It changes your mind, your spirit, and your life. You no longer see the world the same way. Your eyes are opened to a deeper reality.

The Stages of Awakening

1. The Call – Something shakes your life: pain, loss, or a vision that makes you feel there is more than what you were told.

Example: In Ewe tradition, a sickness that no medicine can cure is sometimes the call of the ancestors, forcing a person to wake up to their spiritual path.

2. The Questioning – You become restless and start asking: Who am I? Why am I here?

Example: Like Moses, who grew up in Pharaoh's house, yet his heart questioned until he found his true mission.

3. The Breaking of Illusions – You realize that many things you believed were not truth but programs placed on you.

Example: A young man chasing wealth suddenly realizes money without wisdom brings only emptiness.

4. Inner Awakening – You feel a deep peace, connection with spirit, and a new sensitivity to life.

Example: A woman in Ghana once told me how she sat by the Volta River and suddenly felt the river speaking to her soul, giving her clarity about her life.

5. The Dark Night of the Soul – A season of emptiness when the old self dies. It is cleansing, not punishment.

Example: Job in the Bible lost everything, not because God hated him, but because his soul was being prepared for a higher awakening.

6. Integration – You rebuild life with new wisdom, compassion, and clarity.

Example: After Kwame Nkrumah was imprisoned, he came out with a clearer vision that changed a whole nation.

7. Enlightened Living – You become a light for others, guiding not only with words but with your presence.

Example: Like the Baobab tree, which gives shade to anyone who comes near, an awakened person blesses others just by being who they are.

Rituals and Practices That Awaken the Soul

Morning Alignment: Begin your day with silence, breath, and the words: “I am awake. I choose truth today.”

Daily SelfInquiry: Write down your thoughts. Ask: What illusion am I still carrying?

Meditation and Breathwork: Calm the mind, free the spirit, and awaken hidden energy.

Silence: Spend hours in quiet to hear the voice of your soul.

Nature Connection: Walk barefoot, sit under a tree, or listen to the water. Nature heals and awakens.

Purification: Fast, eat simply, and cleanse your body, for a clean body makes a clear spirit.

Acts of Service: Help others without seeking reward. Service dissolves the ego.

Study of Wisdom: Read sacred books and meditate on their hidden truth.

Prayer and Surrender: True prayer is not asking for things but saying, “Use me, Lord, as an instrument of light.”

The Truth

Awakening is not the end; it is the beginning. It is the door that leads from the world of sleep to the world of spirit. Those who awaken carry a new responsibility—to walk in truth and to help others wake from their sleep. This is the true work of a spiritual leader: not to control people, but to awaken them.

Chapter 5: The Hidden Doorway Within — Meditation and the Reprogramming of the Soul

Meditation is not just a spiritual practice — it is a hidden doorway within you, a path that leads to deeper wisdom, divine connection, and mastery over the mind. It is the ancient key that unlocks your inner world and reprograms the patterns that control your thoughts, emotions, and decisions.

In ancient times, our ancestors understood that the greatest battles are not fought with weapons but within the mind. They knew that if the mind is scattered, life will be scattered; but if the mind is calm and focused, the spirit becomes powerful and unstoppable. Meditation was their sacred tool to silence the noise, dissolve illusions, and awaken their true power.

When we meditate, we step beyond the surface of daily thinking and enter the silence of the soul — a silence where truth speaks, where the Creator whispers, and where the deepest parts of us become alive. Modern science has now proven what the ancient ones always knew: meditation changes the structure of the brain, sharpens focus, strengthens memory, heals emotional wounds, and elevates consciousness. But its greatest gift is spiritual — it opens the gateway to divine intelligence and ancestral wisdom.

How the Ancients Used Meditation

Our ancestors were not meditating just to “relax.” They practiced it with sacred purpose:

To connect with the Creator and ancestors: Silence created the spiritual space where divine messages could be heard.

To receive visions and guidance: Prophets, priests, and elders meditated before making decisions or guiding the people.

To grow spiritual strength: Mastery of the mind brought mastery over fear, anger, and temptation.

To prepare for rituals and transformation: Before ceremonies, they used meditation to align body, mind, and spirit with higher forces.

They meditated by rivers, under trees, in caves, and on mountains — believing that nature’s silence made spiritual communication clearer. Some used rhythmic drumming, chants, fasting, or sacred symbols to travel deeper into the unseen world. Meditation was not a small practice — it was the foundation of spiritual leadership and wisdom.

StepbyStep Guide — How to Meditate and Reprogram Your Mind

Here is a simple and practical guide to help you begin. These steps are for anyone — whether you are new to meditation or returning to the ancient ways.

☐♂ Step 1: Find a Quiet Space

Choose a place where you feel safe and calm. It could be a corner of your room, under a tree, or beside water. The silence of your environment supports the silence within.

☐♂ Step 2: Sit Comfortably

Sit on a chair or the ground with your back straight. Keep your body relaxed but alert. Rest your hands gently on your knees or lap.

☐♂ Step 3: Close Your Eyes and Breathe

Take three deep, slow breaths. Inhale through your nose and exhale softly through your mouth. With each breath, allow your body to relax more deeply.

☐♂ Step 4: Focus Your Mind

Bring your attention to your breath. Feel the air as it enters and leaves your body. If your thoughts wander, gently guide them back to your breathing — again and again, with patience.

☐♂ Step 5: Stay Present

Remain in this state for 5–10 minutes. Do not fight your thoughts. Simply observe them and let them pass like clouds in the sky. The more you practice, the quieter your mind will become.

☐♂ Step 6: Set an Intention

Before you finish, speak silently to your soul. Say something like: “I open myself to wisdom,” or “I choose peace and strength.” This programs your mind with purpose.

☐♂ Step 7: End Gently

Take one final deep breath. Slowly open your eyes and sit quietly for a few moments before returning to your day. Write down any thoughts or feelings that came to you — they are messages from your deeper self.

Wisdom Tips from the Ancestors

Best Times: Dawn and sunset are the most powerful moments for meditation because nature’s energy is calm and receptive.

Consistency: Daily practice, even just 5 minutes, is more powerful than long sessions done rarely.

Nature’s Help: Sit near water, light a candle, or use natural incense to strengthen your focus.

Record Your Growth: Keep a meditation journal. Over time, you’ll notice new insights, visions, and inner strength.

Final Words — The Door Is Within You

Meditation is the silent classroom of the soul. It is where the noise of the world disappears, and the wisdom of the spirit begins to speak. It is how the greatest prophets heard the voice of God, how ancestors received visions for their people, and how ordinary people became powerful leaders.

The door you are searching for is not in the sky or in a temple — it is within you. And every time you sit in silence, breathe deeply, and listen, you take one step closer to unlocking the highest version of yourself.

Chapter 6: The Programming of Your Mind

One of the deepest secrets that many people do not realize is this: most of the thoughts they think are not truly their own. From childhood, every person is shaped by the voices of parents, teachers, traditions, and culture. These voices create invisible codes in the mind. These codes become what I call programming.

Just as a computer only operates by the software installed in it, so also the human being acts, reacts, and even believes according to the programming received. This is why most people are not truly thinking for themselves. They are only repeating the beliefs and ideas that were given to them.

How Childhood Programming Works

When you were a child, your mind was like fresh soil. Every word spoken to you, every punishment, every praise, every tradition became a seed. Those seeds grew into beliefs:

“This is right, this is wrong.”

“This is possible, this is impossible.”

“This is who I am, this is who I am not.”

By the time you grow up, you may think you are making your own choices. But in truth, you are often just repeating the programs that were written into you long ago.

The Danger of Blind Programming

The danger is that not all programs are true. Some programs limit you, some blind you, and some keep you in spiritual bondage. A person programmed with fear will always feel powerless, even in the presence of opportunity. A person programmed with false teachings may follow a leader blindly, never questioning whether the path is right.

This is why many people go to spiritual leaders without discernment. They have been programmed from childhood to believe that every leader must be obeyed, that every prophecy must be true, that questioning is a sin. Such people become victims because they never learned to think with their own awakened mind.

Breaking Free and Reprogramming Your Mind

The good news is that the mind can be reprogrammed. Just as a computer can install new software, you can renew your thoughts. The key is to become conscious of the beliefs running your life and begin to test them.

1. Spot the Old Program

Ask yourself: Where did this belief come from? Who taught me this? Does it serve my growth?

2. Question and Test

Not everything handed down is truth. Be bold to question tradition and even the words of leaders. Truth does not fear examination.

3. Feed on Higher Wisdom

Replace small thinking with greater knowledge. Read widely, learn deeply, and seek truth from God and within yourself.

4. Practice New Habits

When you live differently, you install new programs. Speak truth, act with courage, forgive quickly, and you will see your inner codes changing.

The Secret You Must Remember

Spiritual leaders can guide you, but if your mind is chained by old programming, you will never be free. The true secret is this: liberation begins when you start to think for yourself.

A free mind is dangerous to lies, manipulations, and falsehood. That is why so many systems—from family to culture to false leaders—want to program you early. But once you wake up, no one can enslave your spirit again.

Final Word for This Chapter

Most people are not thinking for themselves; they are thinking through the programs given to them. If you want true spiritual power, learn to reprogram your mind with wisdom, truth, and divine understanding.

Chapter 7: The Hidden Power of Silence

Most people in this world are chasing words, sounds, and noise. They pray loudly, chant endlessly, and speak affirmations without pause. But very few ever stop to think that the greatest power is not in sound, but in silence.

Silence is not emptiness—it is fullness. It is the womb of all creation. Before a word is spoken, before light shines, before an idea is born, there is silence. The universe itself was formed from the great silence, and every human invention first came as a whisper in the stillness of the mind.

Silence as a Creative Force

Silence is a living field of energy. It is the soil where seeds of thought grow. When you hold an intention in silence, you speak in the purest language of the spirit. Unlike words that can be corrupted by doubt or fear, silence carries no distortion. It goes directly to the unseen world as a perfect vibration.

This is why the greatest mystics, prophets, and wise elders spent hours in solitude. They understood that silence is not weakness—it is the hidden voice of creation.

The Ritual of Silence for Manifestation

1. Prepare the Space

Find a quiet place. Light a candle or place a glass of water before you as a symbol of light and life.

2. Enter the Silence

Close your eyes. Take seven deep breaths. Allow all thoughts to sink away until you enter stillness.

3. Plant the Seed

Hold your intention in your heart. Do not speak it. See it as if it already exists. Feel the joy of it being real.

4. Merge with the Silence

Stay in that state for 7–15 minutes. Let silence absorb your desire, as soil absorbs a seed.

5. Close and Release

Slowly open your eyes. Drink the water or blow out the candle. Know that your desire is now in the hands of the unseen.

The Sacred Times of Silence

Certain hours carry stronger vibrations, where silence becomes even more powerful:

3–4 AM (The Hour of Spirit): When the world is asleep, the veil is thin, and your words reach the ancestors and the spirit realm.

Before Sunrise: The transition from darkness to light makes your desires rise with the sun.

Midnight (12 AM): The gate between two days, powerful for cleansing and rebirth.

Full Moon Nights: The moon magnifies the energy of your thoughts and intentions.

Moments of Natural Silence: After rainfall, in the forest, or by the sea—where creation itself is speaking softly.

The Key of Inner Silence

The greatest silence is not found outside, but inside. Even in the busiest marketplace, one who has mastered inner silence can create, manifest, and move mountains.

When you practice the ritual of silence, you enter the secret chamber of creation itself. Here, words are unnecessary. In silence, your spirit speaks directly to the universe.

✧ Remember this truth:

Noise creates distraction. Silence creates manifestation.

The one who masters silence becomes the master of creation.

Chapter 8: How to Break Your Family Chain

A family chain is when you are born into a family where nobody becomes wealthy, nobody achieves greatness, nobody makes any real impact, and everyone remains trapped in cycles of struggle, frustration, sickness, or poverty. If you look around and realize that your family has been stuck in one stage for generations—always struggling, always suffering—then you are facing what I call a family chain.

But the good news is this: you can be the one to break it.

Step 1: Study the Pattern

The first step is to study the problems in your family. Look carefully and ask yourself:

Why has no one succeeded financially?

Why do marriages in the family always fail?

Why do sicknesses keep repeating across generations?

Why does nobody make an impact or gain influence in the world?

Every chain has a cause. Until you understand the cause, you cannot break it.

Step 2: Relearn What Your Family Never Knew

Once you discover the root of your family's problems, you must begin to relearn what they never learned. For example:

If your family struggles with marriage, go and study what makes a marriage successful.

If your family struggles financially, study how wealthy people think, manage money, and build businesses.

If your family struggles spiritually, study your background, understand the spirits or energies influencing your lineage, and then seek proper knowledge on how to overcome them.

Knowledge is power. Relearning is how you replace failure with wisdom.

Step 3: Seek the Right Spiritual Guidance

Many family chains are spiritual. If your family has been bound by ancestral spirits, negative energies, or generational covenants, you must not ignore it. Find out what these forces are, why they have power over your family, and how to deal with them. Sometimes this requires rituals, prayers, or specific spiritual practices—but be wise. Not every so-called “spiritual leader” has the truth.

Seek guidance from a knowledgeable, globalminded, and spiritually educated teacher who can show you the right way to handle spiritual matters. The wrong leader will only add to your bondage.

Step 4: Break Health Patterns

If certain sicknesses keep repeating in your family, study your family’s health history. Look at what they eat, how they think, how they live, and how they care for their bodies. Once you find the mistakes, relearn how to live a healthy life. Break the cycle of sickness with knowledge, discipline, and new habits.

Step 5: Build Yourself to Make an Impact

If you want to be the first person in your family to create influence, wealth, or greatness, you must commit yourself to growth. Study how people become influential. Dedicate years to learning, training, and building your character. It will be tough and uncomfortable, but if you stay disciplined, you will change your story—and your family’s story forever.

Breaking a family chain is not just about you. It is about future generations. When you rise, you create a new path that your children and your children's children can follow.

Chapter 9: Seeing in the Realm of the Spirit

I want you to understand this clearly as I teach about pastors or so-called spiritual leaders who claim they can “see in the realm of the spirit.”

The truth is this: people who see in the spirit are not different from you. They are not more powerful, not greater, and not superior to you in any way. They are also human beings, just like you. The only difference between them and those who do not see is gift development.

Every human being has spiritual gifts. The problem is that most people have not yet developed their own gifts enough to know how to use them properly.

An Example

Imagine I have money, and I use that money to buy a CCTV camera. With the camera, I can see what is happening around my environment, even when I am not physically there. But just because I can see through the camera does not mean I am the one in control of everything happening there. I am only observing.

In the same way, when a pastor tells you: “I have seen something in the realm of the spirit,” you don't need to panic, submit yourself to him, or believe that he controls your destiny. Seeing does not mean controlling. They are simply observing something—just like the CCTV camera.

The Truth About Spiritual Gifts

You also have the ability to see. You also have the ability to hear. The only difference is that you may not have recognized or developed your gift.

Some people see through dreams.

Some people hear through an inner voice that speaks before they make a decision.

Some people feel through strong intuition or inner knowing.

These are all ways of seeing in the spirit. But many people ignore these gifts because they don't understand them.

This is why many end up attaching themselves to so-called spiritual leaders, thinking they are the only ones who can see. But the truth is: you also have the gift. You just need to focus on developing your own instead of depending on someone else's.

A pastor or prophet is not "original" simply because they can see. What makes you truly powerful is when you learn how to hear your own inner voice, recognize your own visions, and use your giftings to help yourself.

That is the real way to become spiritually powerful—not by submitting yourself to another person who claims to see in the spirit, but by developing and trusting the gifts God has already placed inside you.

How to Develop Your Spiritual Gifts

Here are some practical steps you can start today:

1. Pay Attention to Your Dreams

Keep a notebook beside your bed.

Write down every dream you remember, no matter how small.

Over time, you will notice patterns and messages.

2. Listen to Your Inner Voice

Before making decisions, pause and ask yourself: What do I feel inside?

That gentle voice or feeling that guides you is often the Spirit leading you.

3. Practice Silence and Meditation

Spend at least 10–15 minutes daily in silence.

Close your eyes, breathe deeply, and allow your mind to be still.

In silence, your spiritual senses sharpen.

4. Pray for Clarity

Ask God to open your spiritual eyes and ears.

Don't just pray with requests—also listen after prayer. Many answers come in stillness.

5. Trust Your Intuition

When you feel strongly about something (good or bad), don't ignore it.

Test it by observing results—your inner spirit grows stronger when you honor it.

6. Stay Pure in Heart and Intentions

Avoid jealousy, bitterness, and greed.

Purity clears your spiritual “antenna,” making it easier to receive clearly.

7. Act on What You Receive

If you feel led to warn someone, encourage someone, or avoid a danger—act.

The more you practice, the more accurate and sharp your gift becomes.

- ✓ When you start practicing these steps, you will realize that you too can see in the realm of the spirit.
- ✓ You will no longer depend on any man or woman of God as if they own your destiny.
- ✓ Instead, you will walk confidently in the gifts God has already given you.

Chapter 10: The Scam Pastor

One of the most dangerous issues facing the world today—especially in Africa—is what I call the scam pastor. Many socalled pastors have deceived and scammed countless people. Sadly, because many people lack spiritual knowledge and understanding, they become easy victims of these tricks. Today, I want to reveal to you some of the main ways pastors use to scam people.

1. Using Death to Create Fear

One of the most common scams is when a pastor tells you: “I have seen in the realm of the spirit that you are about to die. If you don’t perform a ritual, death will come upon you.”

Ninetynine percent of the time, this is a lie. A true spiritual leader who genuinely sees danger in the spirit does not run to you with fear. Why? Because not everyone is spiritually mature enough to handle such a message. By telling someone they are about to die, you put them into fear, trauma, and confusion.

Most of these pastors know people fear death, so they use it to control them. Once you panic, you’ll ask: “What must I do?”—and they will demand money for a ritual. But in reality, no ritual is being done; it’s only a trick to take your money.

If a pastor truly sees death, why should money be involved? If the God who revealed it is powerful, then that same God can cancel the death without payment. If the socalled god can only reveal danger but cannot stop it, then that god is not powerful.

2. Financial Crisis Manipulation

Another scam pastors use is finances. They will tell you: “I have seen in the spirit that you are about to lose your wealth, your money, or your job. Unless you do a ritual, you will suffer financially.”

Again, this is fear manipulation. Most people do not want to lose money, so they quickly believe. But in reality, nothing is coming against your finances—except the scam pastor who wants to take it from you!

3. Marriage Deception

Another common scam is marriage. A pastor will tell you: “I see a curse upon your life. You will never marry unless we do a ritual. Bring money so I can open your marriage doors.”

This is another lie. They know most people desire marriage, so they use it as bait. In most cases, there is no spiritual block against your marriage. It is only a trick to plant fear and take your money.

Final Advice

Do not be too quick to believe everything a pastor tells you. Question them carefully. Test their words. Remember: most of these so-called revelations are only tactics to scam you.

If a pastor—or anyone calling themselves a spiritual leader—tells you: “Bring money for a ritual so your problem can be solved,” think twice. Be wise, or you will lose your money and remain in the same situation.

Chapter 11: The Secret of Prayer

Let's talk about prayer — one of the most important things human beings do every day. Prayer is powerful, and it's something every human must understand deeply.

1. Honor the Day You Were Born

If you want your prayers to work effectively, never have sex on the day you were born. That day is spiritually sacred — it is the day your soul came into this world. Always keep that day clean and holy for the sake of your soul.

2. Two Types of Prayer: Mental and Spoken

There are two main types of prayer:

Mental Prayer

Spoken Prayer

Let's break them down.

Mental Prayer

Mental prayer is the most powerful yet most ignored form of prayer. Every thought you have during the day is a form of prayer.

If you wake up and spend your day thinking positive thoughts, you are praying for positive things to happen in your life.

But if you wake up and your mind is full of worries, fear, and negativity, you are also praying — but for bad things to happen.

Many people complain that life is hard, things are not working, and they feel cursed — but they don't realize that their own thoughts are creating those problems.

The Bible says:

“Meditate on these things...”

That means what you constantly think about becomes your reality. Your repeated thoughts are prayers. Your focus is a form of meditation — and every repeated thought is a spiritual command to the universe.

So if you want to change your life, you must change your thinking.

Every morning and every night:

Stop thinking about your problems.

Start thinking about the blessings you want.

Think about healing, abundance, joy, and strength.

Let the sick say, “I am healed.”

Let the poor say, “I am rich.”

Let the weak say, “I am strong.”

This is how you pray with your mind. And especially on your birthday (your soul day), sit down for at least 30 minutes, and repeat all the positive things you want to see in your life. Do this once a month, and you will begin to see your life change.

Spoken Prayer

Now let's talk about spoken prayer — and I want you to pay close attention here.

There are many kinds of spoken prayers:

1. Commanding Prayer (speaking with authority)
2. Libation Prayer (pouring water or drink)
3. Church or group prayer
4. Candle Prayer
5. Sweet Drink or Alcohol Prayer

When facing spiritual challenges, different people connect to the spiritual realm in different ways. Some people's prayers are answered simply by speaking. Others need candles, water, sweet drinks, or hard drinks to raise their vibration.

Here is what I recommend:

If you've been praying with words (spoken prayer) for one year and your situation hasn't changed, try another method:

Try libation (pour water and speak your prayer). Do this consistently for a year. If results come, that's your divine method.

If libation doesn't work, try candle prayer — light a candle, sit down, and say your prayers. Do this for one year.

If candle prayer doesn't work, try sweet drinks or alcohol — pour a drink and pray daily for a year. If it works, that's your connection point to the spiritual realm.

You may discover that:

One of these methods works for you.

Or all of them work for you.

Or some work better than others.

But the point is: you must discover your personal spiritual path before running to a spiritual leader for help.

Final Words

If you master these types of prayers and truly understand them, you will gain power over your spiritual life. Only after trying all of these, and still seeing no change, should you then seek spiritual guidance from a leader.

Let me know when you're ready to send the next chapter, and I'll help you edit that too. Would you like me to format this into your spiritual book draft?

Chapter 12: Money don't stay in my hand

This is one of the bigger problems our generation is facing this is one of the most dangerous challenge most of our generation is facing which is they always come to me .when I work I don't know what is happening to my money. money don't stay in my hand .they always complain that money don't stay in their hand .and they don't know what is happening to their money. they believe that some Spirit is taking their money from them or they believe that it is the Work spirit that is why money don't stay in their hand.

. But I want to tell you something and I want to ask you this question if I give you $1 right now and you divide the Dollar into three, put some to buy food some in savings account some in an investment account and after you finish doing that .after 1 hour later you come back and say the money I give to you is no money in your pocket. is it a spirit that take the money from your pocket or you, yourself you have spent the money?

So most of the time a lot of people spend their money without budgeting without investment without saving their money properly and they misuse their money and after the misuse their money ,they give the money to their family and friends they send it to their wife they send the money anyhow without budgeting. after they finish spending all the money, then they will come back later and said it is a spirit that is taking the money from me. the work of a spirit .it is some spiritual power that is taking the money from them. so before you go to a next spiritual person. I want you to ask yourself have I plan about how to use my money have I learned about how to budget for my. have I have I learned about how to budget my money have I learned about compound. investment have I learned the right ways of using money .or I just get up and send anymore or I really have the details of everything every paining that come into my pocket. you see we are not saying that you cannot have a spiritual problem about your money but what I'm trying to say is that before you think somebody or a spirit is taking money from your pocket. you have to first sit down and check yourself first. have you budget for every month .do you study about compound interest do you study about how to multiply your money how to increase your money have you finished studying all these things, and start using your money in the right way before you think is a spiritual problem. that is why money is not staying in your hands .

So if you want money to stay in your hand you must first learn about investment you must first learn about how to increase your money how to multiply your money .so you must first do the physical side of money and learn about compound investment .crypto investment. compound interest .mutual fund. treasure bill and understand all these things before you think that your money is taking by a spirit.when you finish learning all these things and you still dont see your money in your account . then you need a financial manager somebody who manage your money for you .if you finish doing all these things before you realize that your money is still disappearing from your pocket or from your bank account then you need to seek for a spiritual guidance. that is how you must handle your money issue.

Chapter 13: Simple Ways to Be Spiritually Powerful

Many spiritual leaders may never reveal these truths to you, but I want to teach you the simple ways to become spiritually powerful. One of the most important and foundational steps is living a clean and holy life. Purity and spiritual cleanliness make it difficult for negative energy or spiritual attacks to reach you. Let's explore the simple yet powerful steps you can take to grow spiritually:

1. Practice Giving Regularly

Dedicate a portion of your money every month to give to a widow, a cripple, a blind person, or a beggar. Giving isn't just about helping someone in need—it's a deep spiritual practice. When you give, it's like transferring energy from one hand to the other; it doesn't leave you, it multiplies and returns in a better form.

The universe will return what you give in the right way and at the right time. Make giving a lifestyle, not just a onetime act. It unlocks blessings and protects your soul.

2. Bathe with Salt on Your Soul Day

On your soul day (the day you were born), bathe with rock salt or sea salt. This spiritually cleanses your body and your aura. Salt acts like spiritual soap, removing negative energies from your spiritual body. This keeps your aura clean and your soul strong, enhancing your spiritual power.

3. Avoid Sexual Immorality

Never sleep with another person's wife or someone else's partner. It is a spiritual crime that greatly weakens your spirit. No matter the temptation, resist it. It blocks your blessings and opens doors for spiritual destruction.

4. Control Your Emotions

To be spiritually strong, you must avoid:

Anger

Jealousy

Hatred

Envy

Bitterness

Constant sadness

Instead, choose to be peaceful, loving, and kind. These qualities keep your soul balanced in your body and open your spirit to divine strength.

5. Speak Positively Over Your Life

Every morning, declare good things over your life. Never speak negatively about yourself, no matter what you're going through. Words have power. Declare success, health, love, and progress into your life daily. What you speak becomes your reality.

6. Avoid Negative People

Stay away from people who always complain, gossip, or speak negatively. The Bible says, "Iron sharpens iron." When you associate with negative people, their energy connects with your spirit and can pull you down. Choose to be with people who uplift, inspire, and speak life into you.

7. Be Cautious with Funerals

Only attend funerals of close relatives or people who are truly dear to your heart. Funerals are not only gatherings of the living—they are also attended by the spirits of the dead who come to escort the deceased. Being in such spaces without spiritual protection can expose you to spiritual harm. Attend only when necessary.

8. Don't Be Desperate

Avoid being too eager to get things quickly—money, marriage, or success. Desperation attracts the wrong spirits. Some may offer what you want, but later punish you for it. Be patient, build yourself steadily, and wait for the right time. Success must be earned, not forced.

9. Pray for Others

Praying for others is like giving them spiritual wealth. The more you bless others in your prayers, the more your spirit expands. Pray for your country, your community, your family, and your enemies. This attracts good spirits and blessings into your own life.

Final Words

These steps are not difficult, but they are powerful. If you follow them with sincerity and discipline, your spirit will grow, your life will transform, and you will walk in divine power.

Chapter 14: The devil don't have time for you

Most people leave their life thinking that every bad thing that happened to them it is the work of the devil but today I want to talk to you about the truth reality of the devil you see what most people called The Devil it is not something outside with the human body that devil and the god is all within us which is called the left Hemisphere or the upper Hemisphere and the lower Hemisphere it is always within us the devil it is not outside you all these things called The Devil a goal it is within us it is an internal bill that is within us so you see anytime you want to take action about something you are always going to hear two voices one will tell you do it and one will tell you don't do it these two voices the God within you and the devil within you now if you are somebody who love doing bad things you are increasing the devil within you if you are somebody who like to win good things you are increasing the god within you so you see anytime something terrible happened to you don't say it is the work of the devil no the devil is it's not outside you that is planning to destroy you or that is planning to bring anything or anything to you everything that is happening to you in this world you are the one in charge creating them other you are creating them in this life or you have created them in your past life so if you really want we come powerful and stop having spiritual problem stop focusing on the devil and start Focus known how can you increase the pot side within you how can you always be doing good things that are tried good thing to you not for you doing bad things and be expecting good thing to be happening to you most people say I am not somebody who always do bad things but I'm here to tell you that bad thing is not only about stealing some money or taking somebody's money or it is not a board going after people doing bad things but this can be even how you think or your thought what you think every day can be a bad ways of programming yourself to bring back things into your life to create your all of them are built within you like a phone

Chapter 15: Deal with your own mistakes

Let's talk about one of the most important reason why you keep on having challenges and keep on having spiritual problem which is you have to deal with your own mistake you see in this world the world is just a fairground whatever you put into the world that is what you are going to be harvesting other you know or you don't know so fast you are putting it into the ground you are going to be harvesting it for example if you dig the ground right now and you put the cone in to the ground other you tell the come to grow or you just leave the corn is going to grow automatically because the Corn er that anytime you put it into the ground must germinate. Now what am I trying to tell you many people live lie without really taking action to check their life without really being responsible for their life if you are a young guy and you go and impregnate a lady after the lady is pregnant and The Troubles and the challenge you will start saying it is the work of a spirit it is a welcome somebody it is a work of somebody against you no that is not the reality you are the one who planted into the world and it is coming back to you now the main reason why you will be facing many challenges spiritually is that you keep on showing seed without you knowing that all those seat you are so in will come back into your life.

If you are somebody who always live with people's why people's girlfriend you are somebody who always steal you are somebody who always going causing bubble people you are somebody who always is always envy jealousy doing all kinds of bad things to people and then some years later you now said you give your life to Christ or you went to join some religious setup so all those mistake you've made in the past it is gone and you are forgiving and you have nothing to do about it again you have changed and you move on, let me tell you the frankly truth all those things you did in the past you are going to pay for it one by one but you see the way it is going to come it is going to come in a different different differentiation now when all these things is coming back in a different different shape and you don't take a time to check your life 10 years ago what time of life was I living 20 years ago what type of live was I living you think is the work of the devil is the work of a spirit not knowing it is not the work of any devil it is your own thing that you need in the past than the university paying you back remember this when you plant one corn and the corn germinate for you can have at least two three or four on one cone that should tells you that every bad thing you put into this universe when it is going to come back it is going to come back in a multiple portion that is why you have to be very very careful and be very responsible for every single action you are going to take in this world if you are a lady who did so many abortion in your past life when you were growing up in your 18th in your 20s now that you get married and you are 35 years now and you want a child and you're not getting the child you don't go and say it is the work of the devil it is your abortion that you did in your 18s in your 20s that is what is causing the trouble for you now but many people are easily to forget about what they did and they keep on complaining that it is the work of the witches it is the work of the devil it is the work of this spirit it is the work of the my family it is my family no it is not in this spirit that is working that you have planned it my warning to you that every action you are going to take in this world you must be ready for the responsibility you must prepare for the actions and the result that is going to come out from India for you take any action
